Note: Azure Load Balancer provides health probes for use with load-balancing rules. Health probe configuration and probe responses determine which backend pool instances will receive new flows. You can use health probes to detect the failure of an application on a backend instance. You can also generate a custom response to a health probe and use the health probe for flow control to manage load or planned downtime.
When a health probe fails, Load Balancer stops sending new flows to the respective unhealthy instance.

NEW QUESTION: 2
An organization hosts an app on EC2 instances which multiple developers need access to in order to perform updates.
The organization plans to implement some security best practices related to instance access.
Which one of the following recommendations will not help improve its security in this way?
A. Apply the latest patch of OS and always keep it updated.
B. Create a procedure to revoke the access rights of the individual user when they are not required to connect to EC2 instance anymore for the purpose of application configuration.
C. Create an IAM policy allowing only IAM users to connect to the EC2 instances with their own SSH key.
D. Disable the password based login for all the users. All the users should use their own keys to connect with the instance securely.
Answer: C
Explanation:
Explanation
Since AWS is a public cloud any application hosted on EC2 is prone to hacker attacks. It becomes extremely important for a user to setup a proper security mechanism on the EC2 instances. A few of the security measures are listed below:
IAM is useful when users are required to work with AWS resources and actions, such as launching an instance. It is not useful in this case because it does not manage who can connect via RDP or SSH with an instance.

requirements.

Answer:
Explanation:

Explanation:
Scenario: Azure AD users must be to authenticate to AKS1 by using their Azure AD credentials.
Litewire plans to deploy AKS1, which is a managed AKS (Azure Kubernetes Services) cluster.
Step 1: Create a server application
To provide Azure AD authentication for an AKS cluster, two Azure AD applications are created. The first application is a server component that provides user authentication.
Step 2: Create a client application
The second application is a client component that's used when you're prompted by the CLI for authentication. This client application uses the server application for the actual authentication of the credentials provided by the client.
Step 3: Deploy an AKS cluster.
Use the az group create command to create a resource group for the AKS cluster.
Use the az aks create command to deploy the AKS cluster.
Step 4: Create an RBAC binding.
Before you use an Azure Active Directory account with an AKS cluster, you must create role-binding or cluster role-binding. Roles define the permissions to grant, and bindings apply them to desired users. These assignments can be applied to a given namespace, or across the entire cluster.
